

Limón

East Coast Residency 2012

July 8 – July 20

SUNY College at Brockport, New York

Registration and orientation Sunday afternoon, July 8

“Come dance with us and immerse yourself in the Limon legacy”

Explore the range and depth of this classic world-renowned legacy with Carla Maxwell, Roxane D’Orleans Juste and outstanding members of the Limón Dance Company.

Focusing on the individual, the summer residency offers Limón technique class every day plus repertory workshop sessions including Limón repertory ensemble works and solo’s, new repertory, performance techniques, and composition. Special evening activities and individual coaching are also offered throughout the two weeks, and the residency concludes with an informal presentation of repertory and composition. Classes are taught in the spacious studios at SUNY College at Brockport in western New York

Sample Daily Schedule (subject to change)

- 9:00-9:50 Yoga / Ballet / Breath Work / Pilates
- 10:00-11:45 Limón Technique Class
- 1:00-2:30 Limón Repertory / Solo Voice
- 2:45-4:15 Limón Repertory / Dances for Two & Three / New Repertory
- 4:30-5:30 Principles of Limón Technique / Elements of Style / Free studio time
- 7:00-8:30 Lecture on Jose Limón / Lecture on Doris Humphrey / Film Showing

Tuition

Full Program Tuition $790; Part Time tuition $460; Housing & meals available.

Minors must add $130 to cover required supervision.

About the Limón Dance Company

Acclaimed as “one of the world’s great dance companies,” the Limón Dance Company is the living legacy of the movement technique and philosophy developed by José Limón and his mentors Doris Humphrey and Charles Weidman. The company demonstrates the timelessness of Limón’s works through the vision of Artistic Director Carla Maxwell, under whose leadership it has emerged as one of the finest repertory dance ensembles in the world, known for its dramatic expression, technical mastery and expansive yet nuanced movement.

To apply visit www.limon.org

or email summer@limon.org